

Ella Bryson Runs Final Practice First in Feature Before Big Game

Richard F. Carman's Entry at 14 to 1 Captures Canvas Back Selling Race.

SECOND TO TUDOR KING

Laurel, Md., Oct. 15.—By far the largest crowd of the season was present at Laurel Park today, and witnessed the running of a good card. The feature of the program was the Canvas Back Selling Race, with an added value of $1,000. Eleven horses answered the bugle call. Trans carried the bulk of the public's money, while the Hallenbeck entry was the second choice. While the winner, Ella Bryson, won the stable of Richard F. Carman, was an outsider and was in the field. She paid 14 to 1. The race was run as pretty a finish as a handicapper could possibly make—the first horse finishing nose apart.

Tudor King, from the stable of James Butler, the New York millionaire, rode himself for his defeat of last Monday. Today he ran an entirely different race and was in hand all the way. He moved up steadily on the outside and shook off all opposition easily and disposed of Key Mar, the favorite. Uncle Bryn, about as hot a tip as has been passed around for some time was third.

The third number, a handicap, at one mile and one-sixteenth, brought a good field of horses to the wire. Bunkin, the top-heavy favorite, ran a great race and managed to beat G. M. Miller, who led all the way to the stretch, but was not good enough to beat the Robbins horse. H. P. Whitney's Pandean ran a good race, and was on the outside all the way. Had he not run wide in the stretch there is a possibility that he may have won. The steeplechase over the short course was won by J. C. Ewalt, while Senegambian was second and Orwoc, third. Frog, Judge Waiser, Idle Michael, and Aberfeldy fell.

Stallwart Helen captured the fifth race in easy fashion, beating Borge two lengths, while Embroidery, the top-heavy favorite, was third. Embroidery showed early speed, but faded when it came to a drive.

The nightcap on the program was won by Holton, a consistent performer, who beat Mudmill with plenty in reserve. Centauri was third. Dartworth the favorite ran a disappointing race, and was never a contender. She can do much better.

Many horsemen racing at Laurel have made arrangements to ship direct to Juarez when Laurel Park closes. The Mexican track will give at least 100 days' continuous racing, and may extend that into the spring.

Horsemen are more than satisfied to remain in one place rather than shift from course to course. Manager Whitney has added several new stakes to his list already distributed, and the meeting this winter promises to be the best held in the Mexican city.

Doublet, from the stable of James Butler, will perform today. If he is anything like the rest of the Butler stable, he will be a crowd puller.

That the Pari-mutuels have come to stay was evidenced today when at the close of the day's business it was shown that the season has brought in more money than any previous day since the inauguration of the machine.

Forward Passes Feature Last Work of Hilltoppers Before W. & L. Contest.

OTHER GRIDIRON GOSSIP

Georgetown had its final football practice for the big game with Washington and Lee yesterday afternoon, and for two solid hours Coach Exendine had the men throwing forward passes. Full-back Nork shot the ball to Pautin, Cusack and Ward with unerring aim, and the opinion prevails that this style of attack will predominate when the Blue and Gray armies meet in the stadium on Saturday.

Graduate Manager of Athletics Charley Cox, representing Georgetown, and Dr. Pollard, who acts in a similar capacity for Washington and Lee, met last night at the Willard Hotel and arranged the details for the game in Richmond Saturday, which is attracting considerable attention and which will bring out a monster crowd.

Twenty-six players will constitute the Georgetown squad, which will leave tomorrow morning at 7:30 o'clock over the Seaboard Air Line. The Jefferson Hotel, Richmond, will be Georgetown's headquarters while in the State capital, and the players will return to Washington Saturday night.

The game starts promptly at 3 o'clock. The officials have not as yet been definitely decided upon. Jack Gass, the well-known local expert, will referee, but just who his helpers will be is not known. The Hilltoppers go into this game confident of making a good showing. The men are in fine shape physically and the back field has shown great improvement since the Navy game nearly two weeks ago.

Catholic University.
The Catholic University football squad went through a hard practice drill yesterday in preparation for the game with Villanova Saturday. Many new plays were worked out. Killion is back at tackle again, and with him playing the game again, the line ought to be stronger than ever.

It is doubtful if Dobbins will be seen at fullback this Saturday. He strained a ligament in St. John's game and has to hobble around.

A new man in Rogers is being tried out at half back. Last year Rogers played with Holy Cross and when they played Georgetown he made the only touchdown that Holy Cross registered that day. Rogers is quite a punter, something that Catholic University needs badly.

On account of the death of one of the St. Mary's players that school has cancelled all the football dates. Catholic University was scheduled to meet them on October 31 and this has always been a great drawing card at Catholic University. The Brooklanders feel very sorry that this has to be done this year.

Bill Donnelly, captain of basketball and star outfielder, put in his appearance Wednesday. Business with his father kept Bill from returning at the opening of school. "Bill" says he is going to captain the best basketball team in the history of the school.

Cornell.
Thurs., Oct. 15.—Dr. Sharpe swung the first netting, secured practice before the playing season all about Alumni Field to keep the hostile crowds and a two-year undergraduate body away from the grounds. This was the last practice before the Cornell game, and the varsity and scrubs mixed up in a lively scrimmage.

Wedgeback, business with his father kept Bill from returning at the opening of school. "Bill" says he is going to captain the best basketball team in the history of the school.

Cartelle.
Cartelle, Pa., Oct. 15.—Coach Wagner, of Cartelle, continued to use Pratt and Williams in the back field yesterday afternoon, and they may be tried in the game against Pittsburgh Saturday.

Fordham.
New York, Oct. 15.—The Fordham eleven held its first scrimmage of the week yesterday with the High School of Commerce eleven. The Marine varsity team, which is expected to play the Fordham team, the open play of the eleven being exceptionally good. Rogers, Yale, and Dunn, the Fordham back, took their turns at leading and receiving the forward pass.

SPECIAL NOTICE
THE NEXT QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE Roundtable Cooperative Society will be held in Room 9 of the Hotel Hamilton, New York, on TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 27TH, at 7:30 o'clock. PAUL F. GROVE, Secretary.

Princeton.
Princeton, N. J., Oct. 15.—Thirty minutes of scrimmage in a driving rain brought the Tigers one touchdown against the scrubs today. Their score was a field goal and a touchdown. The line after a series of successful forward passes from Roland to Glick advanced the ball to the scrubs' 10-yard line, where he has been out of the game for several days with injuries, returned to his old position at guard today, and managed to lead the scrubs back to their own line.

By agreement with the Lafayette authorities one-third of the proceeds of Saturday's game will be donated to the Princeton Red Cross Society.

Harvard.
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 15.—Harvard had a very light workout today. The substitutes and the regular practice squad tackled for a long period. The amount of punts was next to none. It is expected that in Saturday's contest with Tufts there will be much kicking, as both teams are unfortunate in having their best men out of the game on account of injuries. The regular on the second team lined up his scrimmage. The team had tussling was allowed. Mahan, Logan, and Hardwick were out of the game on account of injuries, but were in tussling, tussling up, and are expected to be in the line-up Saturday for at least a part of the game.

Lehigh.
South Bethlehem, Pa., Oct. 15.—Lehigh held the first practice of the season today. All the varsity men were in top form, fully recovered from the Yale game.

McGorty Issues Defl.
San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Eddie McGorty, the hard-hitting Oshkosh middleweight, arrived today on the steamer Boston, after a ten-months' tour of Australia. McGorty at once issued a challenge to fight Chip, Clabby or Gibbons for the middleweight championship of the world.

McGorty will challenge the winner of the Chip-Clabby battle and give him a side bet," said McGorty.
